ABOUT COUNTY OFFICES AND THE SUB-DIVISIONS

Guthrie, Ok., March 9.—President Murray is in receipt of a large number of letters asking about the office of County Assessor. The Oklahoma law now providing for Township Assessors will apply in the new state. County Assessors were opposed by the Oklahoma delegates who have tried both county and township plans. The county offices created by the convention are Judge, Clerk, Attorney, Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, three County Commissioners, Justice of the Peace for each municipal township and Clerk of the District Court.

"The method of levying and collecting taxes under the Oklahoma law," said Mr. Murray in answer to the inquiries,

"is that the County Treasurer is tax collector. School district boards will be composed of three members—director, treasurer and clerk. The township board is composed of trustee, who is assessor of the township, and a treasurer and clerk. The school districts, at the annual meeting of the board, levy all taxes to conduct the school district for one year. County Commissioners levy all taxes for county purposes, hence the township trustee is the assessor of his municipal township. School districts and townships, together with the Commissioner districts and Justice of the Peace precincts, will be marked in each county by the election board for each county. The county election board, three in number, are appointed by the State Supreme Election Board."

PONTOTOC'S DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE NOW ORGANIZED

Saturday afternoon at the City Hall in Ada the various committeemen selected a week before at township meetings assembled to perfect organization of the Democratic Central Committee for Pontotoc.

The following were noted present, others being represented by proxies.

W. H. Hammond, Francis; J. W. Bohannon, Midland; W. L. MaHarg, Fitzhugh; G. L. Parker, Allen; M. W. Ligon, Ada; M. F. Dew, Ahloso; Nick Heard, Stonewall; Ed Thompson, Jesse. G. L. Parker of Allen was elected chairman; W. H. Hammond of Francis, vice-president; and S. T. McClure of Roff, secretary.

A message from Delegate Carlton Weaver, in the nature of an accounting of his stewardship in the constitutional convention, was presented and read. The document is published elsewhere herein.

The committee having been requested by Delegate Weaver to recommend two good Democrats to serve on the county board of election commissioners—such recommendation to be final with the Supreme Election Board which has the power of appointment—T. J. Chazibless of Ada was nominated as one and Capt. Vaden of Roff, the other. Both were unanimously chosen. On motion of J. W. Bolen, W. H. L. Campbell, who was the state committeeman from the 16th Recording District, was retained in a like capacity for Pontotoc county.

There was a goodly number of the laity attending the meeting, and enthusiasm and utmost harmony prevailed throughout the proceedings.

The meeting adjourned to meet again here March 30th.

Introduced by Dr. M. W. Ligon, the following endorsement of Delegate Carlton Weaver was unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved by the Democratic Central County Committee of Pontotoc County of Oklahoma, that we hereby endorse the course and splendid services of our delegate in the Constitutional Convention, Hon. Carlton Weaver, and that in all his actions as such delegate he has shown capacity, judgment, honesty, a high regard for his platform pledges, and an appreciation for the opinion of the people of his County on all public questions and that in all his actions he has tried to be the servant of the people, reflecting as far as possible the general desires and judgment of all.

Second, resolved further that we highly appreciate with a fitting pride the fact of his having made his strong personality so obviously felt in said convention.

Third, resolved further that we greatly appreciate, and commend as highly democratic and fair his request for an expression of this committee on the selection of the election commissioners of this county and its organization.

WEAVER'S MESSAGE.

To the organized Democracy of Pontotoc County:

Gentlemen of the Committee: Being informed that the democracy of Pontotoc county would be organized in Ada, March 9th, through the meeting of a representative democrat from each township within the county, I take the opportunity afforded of communicating with you relative to the business of the constitutional convention.

The convention has consumed more time than was at first anticipated, but the delegates have not contented themselves with the business of copying provisions of other constitutions and adjourning, but have striven to the end of framing a constitution for Oklahoma, and one adapted to the intricate and complicated conditions that exist in the two Territories. Despite some newspaper reports to the contrary, the convention has worked hard and has wasted no time. Perhaps a few mistakes have been made, but the people will be given a constitution that will bring the state government close to the people, and one that will restrain predatory wealth and corporate greed.

Perhaps the action of the convention in not placing the separate coach provision in the constitution will be the cause of some dissatisfaction, but in my judgment when the people learn the real cause for same, the action of the convention will be approved by all friends of statehood. The best legal talent of the convention holds that the terms of the Enabling Act would warrant Mr. Roosevelt refusing to issue the statehood proclamation should the constitution contain the separate coach provisions. Friends of statehood and of the democratic party in Washington, men who fought for the passage of the statehood bill, including every congressman consulted, every Southern senator but one, and Mr. Bryan, have urged us to leave the matter to the first legislature, saying that statehood would be seriously endangered and perhaps defeated were this not done. Besides this evidence to justify the action, Mr. Roosevelt said in a private conversation at the White house in the presence of Mr. Watson and ex-Senator Jones of Arkansas, that he could not approve the constitution should it contain the separate coach and waiting room provision. The majority of the delegates considered their paramount duty the business of getting statehood, and believed that the people would endorse this spirit, especially those of Indian Territory, whose prosperity and progress depend on self-government. In behalf of our necessities and those who so hardly fought the battle for statehood, and in view of the fact that national consequences which could not be foreseen, I felt compelled, notwithstanding the party obligation, to vote against the adoption of the "Jim Crow" provision in our constitution. The legislature will convene within twenty days after the statehood proclamation is issued and this very much desired provision will certainly be enacted.

The Supreme Election Board has been named, who will at an early date appoint the county committeemen, who will apportion each county into commissioners and election precincts, superintend county elections and perform other duties.

Recognizing the great responsibility of those county committeemen and how considerable their prerogatives, and feeling that a proposition of such great importance to the people of Pontotoc county should as nearly as possible be controlled by the popular will of the people affected, I hereby request the organized democracy of Pontotoc county to recommend for such appointments two citizens of our party from Pontotoc county. Those recommended will be appointed.

The date named by the committee for the primary election is June 1st, and for the general election August 6. According to my best judgment the convention will have concluded its labors by March 20th.

Cordially inviting you to command me and trusting that Pontotoc shall be the banner democratic county of the state, with sincerest best wishes,

Yours truly,

CARLTON WEAVER,
Delegate to Convention.

Railroad Officials Inspect Cement Plant—Delighted.

The Frisco General Manager's special train paused in Ada Friday for an hour or so to inspect the Oklahoma Portland Cement Co.'s plant now in course of construction.

There were 8 or 10 officials in the party, including General Manager Nixon, General Superintendent O'Hara and Division Supt. Walton.

These big officials, though used to big things, were astonished at the magnitude of the enterprise. A thorough inspection of the plant was made amid continued exclamations of surprise and delight as the immensity of the plant was unfolded to the visitors.

All expressed themselves as highly gratified to have on their line a manufacturing plant of such magnitude.

IN A QUANDARY OVER MANDATORY PRIMARY

Guthrie, Ok., March 9.—The convention is still in a quandary regarding its power in providing for mandatory primaries in the first state election, and has before it three reports made yesterday from the legal advisory committee on the subject. One holds that the enabling act makes the present Oklahoma law applicable throughout the new state as applied to the first election. Under this law the method of nominating is optional with the parties.

It also holds that the convention is without authority to provide for a mandatory primary election, that the convention is without power to create a canvassing board to canvass the votes cast at the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitution for the reason that such canvassing board is provided for in the enabling act, but that the convention has the power to provide for the entire election machinery in Indian Territory, for the reason that no election machinery now exists there, and that such power is granted by the enabling act.

It is further the committee's opinion that on account of the election machinery of Oklahoma not being applicable, owing to change in counties, and for the further reason that there is no state canvassing board to canvass the returns of the election for state, district and county officers, that the convention has the power to provide for election machinery in the territory of Oklahoma and to provide for a state canvassing board to canvass returns of the election for state, district and county officers. The committee believes that the election laws of Oklahoma Territory as to manner and method of holding and conducting the election so far as applicable are in force and should be complied with in the election in Indian Territory and in Oklahoma; and owing to the fact that the language of the enabling act is such as renders it possible for differences of opinion as to the power of the convention in these matters, it recommends that the convention in providing for the election on the Oklahoma Territory side, conform as far as applicable to the election machinery now in existence in the territory of Oklahoma.

Mr. Kane and Mr. Leahy also of the committee construe the enabling act to place full authority with the constitutional convention to provide for a full corps of state, county and district officers, and the manner of their nomination and election. Mr. Williams of Durant concurs in this opinion except as applied to congressmen and United States senators, which officers are not created by the constitution, but joins them in holding that the convention has authority to order mandatory primaries for all offices created by the constitution, also by ordinance to create the entire election machinery for holding the first election.

The election committee's report, which was being held up until the advisory committee could speak, provides for an entire new machine and a mandatory primary for all parties.

Under the revised insurance report fees for admission of companies to transact business in Oklahoma are considerably reduced, life companies being $100 and fire companies $75. The tax is 2 per cent on all premiums collected, less amount of losses paid.

Through the effort of Ham Bee of Ardmore, prominent in the Indian Territory volunteer firemen organization, a recommendation is made that the legislature may enact laws for pensioning of meritorious and disabled firemen.

The convention spent the day in correcting provisions ready for the constitution.

An amendment to the prohibition provision requiring that the state-wide plan, to become effective, must receive a majority of all votes cast at the election, was rejected. To give prohibition effect only a majority of the votes cast on that subject is necessary.

In regulating private corporations, trade discrimination is prohibited against persons, firms or corporations, as well as against sections, communities and cities.

The house of representatives shall never consist of more than 123 members. Six more provisions were signed yesterday, among them being that establishing county seats.

SAVES MANY LIVES.

Simple Prescription Prevents Serious Kidney Disease.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney disarrangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, (especially at night) painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These vegetable ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and any one can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism either, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

Do Not Crowd the Season

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by G. M. Ramsey.

The biggest little city in the new commonwealth. The city that has never experienced either a boom or a blow. During its six years' life it has gradually grown into a commercial and railroad center of 4,600 population. The growth has been natural, solid, and enduring.

Society excellent, good schools and strong churches; unsurpassed agricultural section; six railroad outlets; five more such outlets under contract to build by September, 1907, bonuses are raised.

Veritably Ada is a city built upon a rock, and it will stand. It is in the logical belt of various mineral resources. Court town for 16th Recording District and unquestionably a county seat under statehood. Not a rival town within a radius of 40 miles. In a cotton country, but not DEPENDANT UPON cotton. Healthful climate; good water. Low taxes; real estate values reasonable, but rising. Ada is the place pre-eminently to live or invest in. OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in the city of Ada, Indian Territory, on Tuesday, April the 2nd, 1907, at the places hereinafter named, for the purpose of electing a Mayor, Recorder, Marshal, Treasurer, two Aldermen from each ward and such other officers as are or may be provided for by ordinance of the said city.

Said election will be held at the following places, in said city, to-wit: Ward No. 1 in the frame building one door north from the Commercial hotel.

Ward No. 2 at the John B. Beard building on the East side of Broadway between Main and 10th street.

Ward No. 3 at the United States Commissioner's court room.

Ward No. 4 at the frame building on the East side of Townsend avenue between Main and 12th streets.

The polls will be opened and closed and the election conducted as provided by the election laws in force in the Indian Territory.

Given under my hand this 1st day of March, 1907. 293-tf

In Ada everybody reads the Daily News, and it costs you only a few cents to put your ad before them all.

McPherron to Speak.

Chas. E. McPherron, of Caddo, candidate for congress in this district, will address the Democratic voters of this community at the U. S. court house in Ada Monday night, March 11. Mr. McPherron is an orator of reputation, and it is worth everybody's while to hear him. 297-4t

New Aldermanic Candidates.

W. A. Alexander authorizes The News to announce him as a candidate for alderman in the First ward, subject to the action of the democratic primary next Tuesday. Mr. Alexander is an old settler in Ada; is conversant with the municipal affairs, and would be painstaking and conscientious as a member of the city council. The News commends him to the democrats of Ada.

Democrats of the 2nd ward held a caucus last night whereat several good citizens were nominated to represent the ward as aldermen on the ticket Tuesday. The result of the balloting showed T. J. Chambless and W. H. Markham to be the choice for the honors.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Coggins Seized With Hemorrhages—Hurried to Ardmore.

The examining trial of Sidney Coggins for the killing of Warren at Ahloso a week ago, was continued Friday afternoon until this afternoon. But last night he collapsed physically, being seized with alarming hemorrhages, supposed to be a recurrent effect of the carbolic acid he drank combined with more or less exposure to the recent inclement weather.

So, this morning early the hearing was hastily completed, the defense offering no testimony, the defendant was held without bail, and was taken at once to the U. S. jail at Ardmore where it is thought he can receive better care.

A Great Dinner.

Financially, socially, and from a culinary standpoint—all three—the old soldiers' benefit dinner served today by the Daughters of the Confederacy was a brilliant success.

For two hours the room was crowded with eager, joyous people, glad of an opportunity both to eat something good and to contribute to so noble a cause. A total of $45 was realized. No old soldiers were permitted to pay for their dinner.

There will be no supper served, as was intended, because everything was eaten up. A lot of hams and turkeys expected from the country failed to get in on account of the rain.

J. R. Ingram Announces.

J. R. Ingram, feeling that he is qualified to make the city a good street commissioner, requests The News to announce him for that office, subject to the Democratic primary Tuesday.

Born in Arkansas, at the age 20 Mr. Ingram moved to Dallas, Texas, where he resided till coming to Ada two years ago. While a resident of Dallas he did a great deal of street and bridge work, valuable training for a street commissioner. Here in Ada he has been engaged chiefly in dairy and butcher business.

If chosen for this office he pledges himself faithfully to serve the people.

DID NOT ENJOY HIS RIDE.

Reporter Happened to Travel with His Friend, the Sheriff.

Reporters are in the general course of events the recipients of countless favors. Some courtesies extended to them, however, are prone to bring with them an aftermath that is not altogether pleasurable; as, for instance, the other day a reporter in a neighboring city accepted the kind offer of a police court official to have a ride, en route to the jail.

The reporter happened to be going that way, so accepted the favor. He had ridden but a block or two when he passed one of his acquaintances, who, looking up at him gave him a cold, glassy stare, and strove on. "Gad!" thought the reporter to himself. "Does he think I've been pulled in?"

The circumstance was quickly dismissed and the reporter fell into conversation with the officer. Presently he glanced up to see two fashionably dressed lady acquaintances just crossing the street. They gave him one haughty glance, in which there was not a look of recognition, and swept on.

This passed the endurable mark. "I've got to get off here," he said to the officer. "Have an interview with an old fellow in this block; good day." He took a car back down town as quickly as possible.

Just as he alighted he bumped into one of the passengers and, glancing up, recognized one of the fashionably dressed acquaintances just passed. She colored visibly, then said hesitatingly, "How do you do?" He hasn't seen the man yet, and he has work for some time ahead making good from that ride.

CUTTING STEEL WITH YARN.

Prisoner Cuts One Bar in 18 Hours and Another in 5 Hours.

What the drop of water does to the hardest stone is only a circumstance to what a thread of yarn can accomplish.

Maj. McClaughy, warden of the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, once found a prisoner who was supposed to be pounding stone working away at one of the bars to one outside window.

The man finally admitted what he was doing and was induced to give a demonstration. A grating of the same description was placed in his cell, says Popular Mechanics, and a guard stationed over him to exact the proof of the statement.

With the limestone dust and silicate from the stone pile, the yarn from his sock and a little water this man cut the bessemer steel bar in 18 working hours. With some fine emery, a chalk line and two wooden handholds to save his fingers he made the other clean cut of the bar in five hours, proving the matter to the guard's satisfaction.

As to Chess.

Chess is of great antiquity, and its origin is lost in obscurity. Though nearly every nation under the sun claims the invention of the pastime, it is undoubtedly of oriental origin. The Romans placed over the door of the Temple of Janus: "Ex Oriente Lux et Ludus Scachorum" ("Out of the East came light and the game of chess.") Chess was called by the Hindus "chaturanga," the four angas—that is, the four members of the army—elephants, horses, chariots and foot-soldiers. The Chinese played chess 6,000 years ago, and called it the "game of war." And to-day we have "kriegspiel," the modern game of war.

Miss Sanborn's Ducks.

Miss Kate Sanborn, who has written much on the abandoned farms of New Hampshire, tells of an experience she had in raising ducks. The ducks proved to be enormous feeders and were consuming the profits of the farm without making the expected returns in eggs. One day the ducks were at the kitchen door clamoring for more food when an old farmer called.

To him Miss Sanborn told the story of her failure to coax the ducks to lay. The farmer laughed uproariously and finally said:

"Them ducks of yours, Miss Sanborn, is all drakes."

This Contradictory World.

This is a contradictory world. A writer tells us Austrian blankets are made in Yorkshire, England. Turkey rhubarb is neither obtained nor imported from Turkey, but comes from Siberia and is a Russian monopoly. German silver hasn't a particle of silver, but is a mixture of other metals. Prussian blue has nothing whatever to do with the Kaiser's kingdom, and honey soap never saw a beehive. Irish stew, appetizing as it is, is unknown in Ireland, and the Vienna roll was first made beyond the capital of Austria. Things are not always what they seem nor what they are named.

A Two-Headed Baby.

One day Mr. Doubleday had his twin babies downtown, tucked in their double-ended carriage, facing each other, with only their little round heads showing out of the blankets. A boy caught sight of the babies, and he cried in astonishment: "Oh, mamma, look quick! There is a baby with a head on both ends!"

Too Late.

The trust magnate was thoroughly aroused. "It is a pity," he snarled, "that when the reformers started this business the government did not get after Rhode Island for over capitalization."

SHE HAD A GRIEVANCE.

The Result of a Woman's Delving Into Etymology.

"Bah!" she said, and flung her cigarette into the grate. Swishing their silk skirts the others turned from the club window with inquiring looks.

"Bah!" she said again. "Can we women never be rid of the shackles that man has been loading on us ever since the cave bear's day? Girls, I've been reading etymology, and do you know what I've found out? I have found out that our very titles of honor are but the badges of our servitude."

"Lady, for instance, says my etymology, means one who waits. A lady is a female who waits at table while a man gorges himself."

"Wife means a weaver. The wife is the woman who weaves her husband's and children's clothes."

"Spinster is a spinner—a girl who must spin a lifetime's supply of linen before any man will take her off the old folks' hands."

"We don't need mere spelling reform. We need word reform. Let some reformer rise and abolish the words lady, spinster and wife from the language, and let suitable substitutes be invented."

"Hear, hear!" rose a soprano chorus.

SALTING THE DUCK MARSHES.

Practice Condemned by Hunters, Who Call It Barnyard Sport.

A California newspaper chronicles the prowess of a large number of mighty nitrobirds who recently killed the limit number of ducks on various preserve grounds previously baited with food which had made the birds tame and unsuspicious.

This "barnyard sport" does not appeal to a Recreation correspondent, who objects to unnecessary slaughter, even if the law does admit the killing of half a hundred ducks.

The practice of "salting" duck marshes and lakes with corn and other grain, and then "burning them out" on the opening day is simply a phase of the degeneracy of latter-day duck shooting.

The birds get so that they will come in for the grain like chickens at the call of a housewife. It requires no hunting skill to find the game and it is so ridiculously tame from non-molestation and constant feeding at the baited points that the shooting is about as difficult as shooting at a poultry show and killing a rooster.

Pathetic Excuse.

One of the brightest and nicest little patients in the surgical ward of one of the big city hospitals lay on her bed moaning with pain. She had just come to consciousness after a slight operation, and though only five years old was exhibiting heroic nerve.

Yet she couldn't keep from occasional low cries. She was the sort of child who hates above all things to give trouble and when one of the nurses stopped before her and, as she thought, looked a bit reproachfully down at her she explained, between the paroxysms, with a pitiful smile:

"Oh, Miss Smith, I can't help it, I can't help it, I'm not used to operations."

My Green and Impressionism.

Pea impressionistic pupil had reached the stage where she painted in orange, pea green and purple, and being in Paris she thought she would call upon Whistler and make his acquaintance, writes William M. Chase. Mr. Whistler saw her work and was duly impressed.

"What are you trying to do?" asked the artist.

"Mr. Whistler, I am trying to paint nature as I see it," returned the girl with great earnestness. "Isn't that right?"

"Oh, yes," said Whistler, "that's all right, provided you don't see things as you paint."

One Man Killed—by Accident.

In 1906 there were held in Spain 585 bull fights, an increase of 35 as compared with 1905. These involved the killing of 2,879 bulls, valued at $163,700. The value of the horses (mostly poor old skates) killed in these encounters amounted to $117,000. Other expenses amounted to over $350,000. In the corridas 33 espadas took part, one of whom was a woman, and 849 toreros, whose salaries amounted to a total of $600,000. The total estimated expenditure was $1,700,000, and the receipts were $2,400,000. There were numerous accidents, but only one had a fatal result.

His Awful Threat.

A little son of one of the bishops in India was once restrained by his nurse from an action in her judgment highly improper. The youngster's judgment differed. How to bring the nurse to terms was a question he pondered seriously for a minute. Then a bright idea struck him, and he threatened solemnly: "If you don't let me do it right away I shall go out and worship idols!"

No Use for Them.

"I sent a set of knives and forks to my cousins." "Where do they live?" "In Chicago." "How wasteful of you!" "What do you mean?" "Why, you didn't need to send them the forks."

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Her Reason.

"And does your mother kiss you every day when you come home from school?" "Yes, sir." "She must be very fond of you." "No; she wants to see if I've been smoking cigarettes."

HAD TO KEEP PROMISE.

Woman Paid Penalty of Almost Over-Active Conscience.

Here is a point for Mrs. Mary Wilkins Freeman in one of her studies of New England conscience. A family moved into a nice apartment in a nice house. The next Sunday they had callers.

"Aren't these rooms lovely!" exclaimed a woman visitor. "Are there any more flats like these to rent?"

The hostess said she believed not. "Well," said the visitor, "if there should be a vacancy later, kindly let me know and we'll move in immediately." Just before going away she reverted to the flat. "You'll be sure to let me know if anybody moves out, won't you?" she said.

And the hostess said she would. The next week somebody did move.

"What shall I do?" wailed the hostess. "I'd rather live in an insane asylum than in the same house with that woman."

"Don't tell her about the vacancy," suggested her conscienceless husband.

"Oh, but I must," argued the woman. "I promised, and I cannot break my word. I simply can't live with that woman, but I shall let her know about the flat and if the worst comes to the worst and she moves in, why, we'll move out, that's all."

And that, in spite of the protests of the mystified man, was exactly what they did.

LONGING FOR COUNTRY LIFE.

Desire Is Almost Universal Among Successful Men.

A strange thing is the universal longing of professional men and others who have come to the city and have prospered, as they advance in life to get back to the country. It is seldom that they do not return, and when they do there is often disappointment and things do not appear as they did long ago. The change is in the man himself, but he thinks it is in the country. Nevertheless, the desire to get back to the old country place to end one's days is very general.

Sir Walter Scott refers to it and compares the course of a man through the world to that of the hare which is started from her lair, and after a long chase and making a large circle ends by returning to the nest from which she started.

Wanted No Small Deposits.

There's a young fellow up in Harlem, says the New York Globe, who is inclined to "throw a bluff," as they say down in the Bowery. A few days ago he had $300 to deposit, and decided he'd change his bank. He dropped in to accept no small deposits and told the teller that he wanted to open an account.

"We don't accept small deposits," said the teller, and his tone was not exactly what might be called soothing.

"Who asked you to accept a small deposit?" demanded the youth. "I did want to start an account with $50,000, but I'll go elsewhere." He got out before he could be stopped, leaving the teller with a look of pain and chagrin scattered about his countenance.

Rules for Business Success.

Power to see the future has a certain place in business—an exceedingly humble one, however. It is employed professionally by some ladies and gentlemen at an average price of about a dollar a sitting. They can see things afar off, but not the landlord who is coming up the stairs to throw them out, nor the policeman who is coming around the corner to run them in. Prescience and clairvoyance have no place in the equipment of men who are able to make a living in less hazardous and persecuted callings.

There are plenty of infallible rules for success. Some men who have succeeded are rather fond of laying them down for the guidance of the young. But nobody—least of all their authors—ever infallibly succeeded by them.—Everybody's.

Against "Snippet" Sermons.

The bishop of Carlsruhe, himself a most eloquent pulpit orator, preached at Barrow-in-Furness recently against "snippet" sermons of ten minutes' duration, adding: "If people would not listen to a discourse of half an hour let them go." A good deal depends on the material of the "snippet" or the half an hour discourse. "Man John," pathetically exclaimed a Scotch minister to his ruling elder, "why dae ye snuff sae muckle when I'm discoursin'?" John—"Yeel, minister, ye hae the remedy into yer ain han'; pi mair snuff into yer discourse!"

How to Obtain Sailors.

The marquis of Graham, who is learning ship construction and engineering in one of the shipyards on the Clyde, thinks that the most probable way to obtain the services of all-British crews is for nautical schools to be established at or near all the principal seaports, the boys learning in these schools to remain on shore and to be taught the "three R's," but their principal instruction to be seamanship. They should be sent regularly on a voyage in a sailing training ship.

For and Against.

"Yes, Marie," said Mrs. Glidday to her maid, "I do hate to have my husband kiss me after he comes from the barber's. I do so detest the odor of that brilliantine on his mustache." "Do you really, ma'am?" replied the maid. "I rather like it."

TRIED OUT COFFIN IN LIFE.

Christian Scientist's Preparation for His Long Sleep.

Charles Humphrey, who has just been buried, believed in a trial funeral instead of trial marriages, says a New Haven correspondent of the New York Times. He was a Christian Scientist, and in 50 of the 70 years of his life he preached disbelief in death.

"There is no such thing as death, not a bit more than there is disease," said he. "What the profane call death is simply a long sleep. I am going to make ready for it by getting into practice." Humphrey, who was a carpenter, built himself a coffin. The box was of black walnut, and was handsomely polished, and bore this inscription: "I sleep, but I shall awaken."

It was trimmed, cushioned and elegantly upholstered, and for months he lay in it for his trials of his long sleep he must inherit. For weeks he occupied it at the office of the local undertaker in whose rooms he built it. The playful undertaker's assistant one day pointed him out while asleep to a prospective purchaser as a perfectly embalmed specimen. Furious at the banter that followed this prank, Humphrey took his "dormitory," as he called it, and removed to his local boarding house.

He slept in it till he went to the Odd Fellows' Home, in New London, three months ago. His wife died three years ago. Before her death he had converted her to his views of immortality, and he built for her also a coffin in which she slept before her death. He also built one for his mother-in-law. She didn't use it.

ONLY ANIMAL THAT KISSES.

Man's Peculiarity a Boon to Playwright and Novelist.

Why a salute of the lips, ordinarily known as a kiss, should be given such prominence in the literature and drama of the world, both biblical and historical, cannot be solved by recourse to any written authority; yet during all these years since the beginning of time this peculiar salutation does not appear to have lost in value, nor is there any immediate prospect of its so doing. What the playwright, the novelist, and the poet would do without this peg upon which to hang a plot it would be difficult to say, and this applies especially to the playwrights, for dozens of familiar dramatic productions, several of which have graced the New York stage this season, have found their greatest factor, the wheel upon which the machinery of the scenes runs and the plot depends, in a kiss—that of a man and a woman.

In France only a half-century ago a code of regulations by which the theaters of that country were governed provided that any actor kissing an actress without her consent, regardless of what the play might be, would be subject to a fine of many francs.—Leslie's Weekly.

General Culture.

"I will tell you confidentially," said Miss Woolley, "that the best housekeepers I have ever met have been college-bred women." Miss Woolley, who for six years has been president of Mount Holyoke, is a great believer in the saving grace of higher education, the liberal education that fits a girl as well for future special work in a profession as it does to become the mistress of her own home. Generally the proposition is reversed, but Miss Woolley from her experience has found that although many girls come to college with the idea of making some special work the object of their lives generally settle down to domestic life before long, and then find that it was well that they went to college. The girl with a "mission" is not as common as she used to be in college halls, and it is for general culture more than anything else that girls take college work in order that they may be better fitted for the position in life in which they find themselves.

Reversible Cognomen.

When the first lady of the land met the first lord of the land she, with a gracious bow, presented her card, on which was written her name—Eve. Not knowing how she read it, i. e., whether from right to left or from left to right, and desiring to be right in either case, he took his pencil and wrote: "Madam I'm Adam."

Of course, this is old.

There is in Harlem to-day, however, a contractor and dealer in glass, who, when weary from writing his name from left to right, can reverse the process without in any way changing the spelling: Leon Noel.

His Educational Limit.

A lawyer in Washington was telling some colleagues of neat retorts he had heard in court, when he was reminded of the interchange of compliments between a western judge and a sharp-tongued attorney from Chicago.

The judge, a quick-tempered man, had had several "run-ins" with counsel when suddenly he observed:

"I can teach you law, Mr. Perkins, but I cannot teach you manners."

"That is true, your honor," retorted the Chicago lawyer.—Harper's Weekly.

Ancestors by Auction.

A man interested in art, says William M. Chase was calling on a friend and, seeing a remarkably fine portrait, asked whose it was. "Oh, that is an ancestor of mine," returned the owner of the picture. "Yes, of course," replied the other. "I remember now, and it would have been an ancestor of mine if I had bid another hundred on it."

PUBLISH 364 LABOR PAPERS.

In the United States and Canada—Reach a Wide Circle of Readers.

One hundred and eighty-five monthly and one hundred and seventy-nine weekly journals in the United States and Canada are devoted exclusively to the advocacy of trade unionism, says a writer in The World To-day.

These 364 publications, which number does not include socialist periodicals, reach a not inconsiderable portion of the laboring community and exercise an influence in it which is little suspected.

There are in North America approximately 2,500,000 working people organized into trades unions, and each of them receives the official organ of the craft to which he or she belongs and usually one or two other labor papers.

But the prestige of these journals extends beyond the enrolled membership of established organizations. They number among their subscribers many sympathizers and non-union workmen; they are placed on the tables of reading rooms all over the country, and for every subscriber there are probably two readers. It is no exaggeration to say that they reach 5,000,000 readers, perhaps half as many more.

"READING MAKETH FULL MAN."

Wisdom and Advice Delivered by Francis Bacon.

Crafty men condemn studies, simple men admire them, and wise men use them; for they teach not their own use; but that is a wisdom without them, and above them, won by observation. Read not to contradict and confute, nor to believe and take for granted, nor to find talk and discourse, but to weigh and consider. Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested; that is, some books are to be read only in parts; others to be read, but not curiously; and some few to be read wholly, and with diligence and attention. Some books also may be read by deputy, and extracts made of them by others; but that would be only in the less important arguments, and the meaner sort of books; else distilled waters, flashy things. Reading maketh a full man, conference a ready man, and writing an exact man; and, therefore, if a man write little, he had need of a great memory; if he confer little, he had need of a present wit; and if he read little, he had need have much cunning, to seem to know that he doth not.—Francis Bacon.

Astonished Fair Bostonian.

An Iowa man tells of an incident in connection with an exposition held in the state, whereat one of the attractions was the Indian department, where the red men dwelt in their tepees and mimicked their own history in dances and mock fights. After one of these exhibitions by the Indians a Boston girl undertook to talk to a young Indian brave. "Heap much fight," she said. The red man smiled grimly, drew his blanket closer about his stalwart form and replied: "Yes, 'this is, indeed, a great exposition. We flatter ourselves that our portion of the entertainment is by no means the least attractive here. May I presume to ask who it is that I have the honor to address?" The Boston girl had been talking to a Carlisle graduate.

Poets' Poor Pay.

Milton's "Paradise Lost" has its importance in the history of publishing as well as of poetry. We are indignant at the miserable reward which the author received for his work, two payments of five pounds each and one of eight pounds (paid to his widow), making a total of £18 in all for the most famous poem in the English language.

But what previous English poem had been made the subject of a formal legal agreement, providing for payments on the publication of each of the first four editions? What English poet had previously earned £18 by a poem, not by a dode, but as a patron or a gift of a sinecure, but as a matter of business from a publisher?

Pope Not a Medicine Taker.

The pope has appointed a man as his doctor whom he likes because he is "old-fashioned and not a tyrant." The doctor will have an old-fashioned patient, as little regardful of professional wisdom as the great duchess of Marlborough, who got better simply to confound the physician who predicted her speedy dissolution. When his gout was so bad all manner of remedies, pills, liniments and medicines were prescribed for his holiness. And he has told the world what he did with them. "I arrange the bottles and pill boxes before me and after looking at them I say to myself: 'These are the things which I ought to take.' But the idea of actually taking them produces such an effect upon me that I feel as if I had been cured."

Main Point.

The beautiful leading lady was in deep distress.

"In spite of all I can do," she sobbed, "I fear that I am going stale. I have lost my diamonds, I have lost my pearls, my three husbands by divorce, my imported bull dog and my automobile. Now, is there anything else I can lose that will once more bring me before the limelight?"

The manager shrugged his shoulders.

"Yes," he replied, coldly, "lose your affection and learn how to act."

WITH FAT MAN'S QUARTER.

Two Damsels Left the Car, and He Uttered No Protest.

A corpulent man with a red face went to Coney Island one day and sat in the cross seat of an open car in front of two stout German women. In searching for a quarter to pay his fare, he dropped a nickel, which rolled almost under the dress of one of the women.

He realized that he might make a spectacle of himself if he attempted to pick up the quarter, so he decided to wait until she and her friend got out. Meanwhile he took an occasional glance at the coin.

The women found themselves at their station unexpectedly, and in their hurry to get out, one of them knocked her handkerchief, which was weighted with something, on the back of the fat man's seat. A corner of the handkerchief dropped and let out a shower of jingling silver.

The owner knelt and began collecting the coins, while her friend urged her to hurry. The man gave a sigh of relief when he saw that the woman had not noticed his quarter. Just then, however, the other woman observed it.

"Katrina," she said, "you have not all dot change got. Look! Dere is a quarter."

Katrina, with an effort, stooped and picked it up, and she and her friend rushed from the car. The fat man, who saw the futility of protest under the peculiar circumstances, sighed regretfully and sadly watched them go.—N. Y. Sun.

EACH HAD LARGE ROLL.

Bankrupt, All, But They Were Supplied with the "Needful."

Peter Bennett for 25 years has been a Wall street reporter and a wag. He knows everybody, and is walking reference book of the financial district.

One afternoon he was in a New street cafe sitting at a table with three stock brokers who had suspended.

"Have a drink?" said one, and when it came the broker extracted a huge roll of yellow notes and paid the reckoning.

"Have another?" invited broker No. 2. It arrived, and he reached down and produced a fat, healthy looking roll of yellowbacks and paid.

"Have another?" asked broker No. 3 and he imitated his suspended friends by digging down and producing a bulging wad of yellow paper money.

"Have one on me," requested Bennett, and then he produced an anemic roll of soiled notes. "I can't understand it," said Peter, wonderingly. "Here am I the only solvent man in the crowd, and I am broke, while you three bankrupts each have a roll as thick as my leg. I would like to know how you do it?"—Sunday Magazine.

Homely, and She Knew It.

"Beauty may be only skin deep," said the admirer of it. "But the reverse is distressing to me. The other evening at a club dinner I was put next to a woman who seemed to me to be about the homeliest woman I had ever seen. She was so homely that I had made up my mind to change seats surreptitiously with some friend, when she began to talk to me about her life in Missouri and her husband."

"Do you know," she said naively, "he waited for me five years. Finally I said to him: 'Well, if there's nothing else for it, I suppose I must marry you, but I don't see how in the world you can fancy me, I am so terribly homely.'"

"It was strange, but after that I lost sight of her homeliness entirely. Before the evening was over I had got to thinking her actually pretty."

Dutch for Oil King.

W. W. Scott, a Passaic (N. J.) lawyer, is negotiating with persons in Holland, desirous of that city in an attempt to induce 12 to go to Cleveland, O., and take up their homes at Forest Hill, the estate of John D. Rockefeller.

A. H. Howatt, general superintendent of the Rockefeller estate, was in Passaic recently and made arrangements with Mr. Scott to secure the families. Much difficulty is encountered in securing help, he said, and after years of experiment Mr. Rockefeller has come to the conclusion that the Jersey Dutch are superior to all others and has decided to employ them exclusively on his Ohio estate.

Children's Companions.

Every mother has more or less of a problem on her hands in the matter of her children's companions, and it is sometimes a delicate affair to avoid pharisaism, ill-feeling between neighbors, and the spirit of antagonism at home, in an effort to prevent undesirable intimacies. Little children are safest when at play directly under the mother's eye, but, as they develop, it is wise, I believe, to fortify them with right principles and then to trust them and show them that we do!

Her Chance to Abuse Him.

"Lady," said Plodding Pete, "are you one o' dese people dat hates tramps?" "I am," was the prompt and decisive answer. "Well, wouldn't you like to show your feelin' by temptin' me to overeat myself an' puttin' the curse of dyspepsia on me?"

The Marrying Habit.

"Yes, lady," said the convict, "my trouble wuz dat I attended too many wedding's." "Aht!" exclaimed the prison visitor, "I suppose that started you in the drink habit?" "No, lady; de trouble wuz dat I wuz de bridegroom at all o' dem."

ABOUT COUNTY OFFICES AND THE SUB-DIVISIONS

Guthrie, Ok., March 8.—President Murray is in receipt of a large number of letters asking about the office of County Assessor. The Oklahoma law now providing for Township Assessors will apply in the new state. County Assessors were provided by the Oklahoma delegates who have tried both county and township plans. The county offices created by the convention are: Judge, Clerk, Attorney, Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, three County Commissioners, Justice of the Peace for each municipal township and Clerk of the District Court.

is that the County Treasurer is tax collector. School district funds will be composed of three members—director, treasurer and clerk. The township board is composed of trustee who is assessor of the township and a treasurer and clerk. The school districts, at the annual meeting of the board, levy all taxes to conduct the school district for one year. County Commissioners levy all taxes for county purposes, hence the township trustee is the assessor of his municipal township. School districts and townships together with the Commissioner districts and Justice of the Peace precincts, will be marked in each county by the election board for each county. The county election board three in number are appointed by the State Supreme Election Board.

PONTOTOC'S DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE NOW ORGANIZED

Saturday afternoon at the City Hall in Ada the various committeemen selected a week before at township meetings assembled to perfect organization of the Democratic Central Committee for Pontotoc.

The following were noted present, others being represented by proxies: W. H. Hammond, Francis, J. W. Bohannon, Midland, W. L. MaHarg, Fitzhugh, G. L. Parker, Allen, M. W. Ligon, Ada, M. F. Dew, Ahlso, Nick Heard, Stonewall, Ed Thompson, Jesse, G. L. Parker of Allen was elected chairman, W. H. Hammond of Francis, vice-president, and S. T. McClure of Roff, secretary.

A message from Delegate Carlton Weaver in the nature of an accounting of his stewardship in the constitutional convention was presented and read. The document is published elsewhere herein.

The committee having been requested by Delegate Weaver to recommend two good Democrats to serve on the county board of election commissioners—such recommendation to be final with the Supreme Election Board which has the power of appointment—T. J. Chabless of Ada was nominated as one and Capt. Vaden of Roff the other. Both were unanimously chosen. On motion of J. W. Bolen W. H. L. Campbell who was the state committeeman from the 11th Recording District was retained in a like capacity for Pontotoc county.

There was a goodly number of the laity attending the meeting and enthusiasm and utmost harmony prevailed throughout the proceedings.

The meeting adjourned to meet again here March 10th.

Introduced by Dr. M. W. Ligon the following endorsement of Delegate Carlton Weaver was unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved by the Democratic Central County Committee of Pontotoc County of Oklahoma that we hereby endorse the course and splendid services of our delegate in the Constitutional Convention Hon. Carlton Weaver, and that in all his actions as such delegate he has shown capacity, judgment, honesty, a high regard for his platform pledges, and an appreciation for the opinion of the people of his County on all public questions and that in all his actions he has tried to be the servant of the people, reflecting as far as possible the general desires and judgment of all.

Second, resolved further that we highly appreciate with a fitting pride the fact of his having made his strong personality so obviously felt in said convention.

Third, resolved further that we greatly appreciate and commend as highly democratic and fair his request for an expression of this committee on the selection of the election commissioners of this county and its organization.

WEAVER'S MESSAGE

To the organized Democracy of Pontotoc County

Gentlemen of the Committee: Being informed that the democracy of Pontotoc county would be organized in Ada, March 9th, through the meeting of a representative democratic from each township within the county, I take the opportunity afforded of communicating with you relative to the business of the constitutional convention.

The convention has consumed more time than was at first anticipated but the delegates have not contented themselves with the business of copying provisions of other constitutions and adjourning, but have striven to the end of framing a constitution for Oklahoma and one adapted to the intricate and complicated conditions that exist in the two territories. Despite some newspaper reports to the contrary the convention has worked hard and has wasted no time. Perhaps a few mistakes have been made, but the people will be given a constitution that will bring the state government close to the people and one that will restrain predatory wealth and corporate greed.

Perhaps the action of the convention in not placing the separate coach provision in the constitution will be the cause of some dissatisfaction but in my judgment when the people learn the real cause for same, the action of the convention will be approved by all friends of statehood. The best legal talent of the convention holds that the terms of the Enabling Act would warrant Mr. Roosevelt refusing to issue the statehood proclamation should the constitution contain the separate coach provisions. Friends of statehood and of the democratic party in Washington, men who fought for the passage of the statehood bill, including every congressman consulted, every Southern senator but one, and Mr. Bryan, have urged us to leave the matter to the first legislature, saying that statehood would be seriously endangered and perhaps defeated were this not done. Besides this evidence to justify the action, Mr. Roosevelt said in a private conversation at the White House in the presence of Mr. Watson and ex-Senator Jones of Arkansas, that he could not approve the constitution should it contain the separate coach and waiting room provision. The majority of the delegates considered their paramount duty the business of getting statehood, and believed that the people would endorse this spirit, especially those of Indian Territory, whose prosperity and progress depend on self-government. In behalf of our necessities and those who so hardly fought the battle for statehood and in view of the fact that national consequences which could not be foreseen I felt compelled notwithstanding the party obligation to vote against the adoption of the Jim Crow provision in our constitution. The legislature will convene within twenty days after the statehood proclamation is issued and this very much desired provision will certainly be enacted.

The Supreme Election Board has been named who will at an early date appoint the county committeemen who will apportion each county into commissioners and election precincts, superintend county elections and perform other duties.

Recognizing the great responsibility of those county committeemen and how considerable their prerogatives and feeling that a proposition of such great importance to the people of Pontotoc county should as nearly as possible be controlled by the popular will of the people affected, I hereby request the organized democracy of Pontotoc county to recommend for such appointments two citizens of our party from Pontotoc county. Those recommended will be appointed.

The date named by the committee for the primary election is June 1st, and for the general election August 6th. According to my best judgment the convention will have concluded its labors by March 20th.

Cordially inviting you to command me and trusting that Pontotoc shall be the banner democratic county of the state, with sincerest best wishes,

Yours truly,

CARLTON WEAVER,
Delegate to Convention.

Railroad Officials Inspect Cement Plant—Delighted.

The Frisco General Manager's special train paused in Ada Friday for an hour or so to inspect the Oklahoma Portland Cement Co.'s plant now in course of construction.

There were 8 or 10 officials in the party, including General Manager Nixon, General Superintendent O'Hara and Division Supt. Walton.

These big officials though used to big things were astonished at the magnitude of the enterprise. A thorough inspection of the plant was made amid continued exclamations of surprise and delight as the immensity of the plant was unfolded to the visitors.

All expressed themselves as highly gratified to have on their line a manufacturing plant of such magnitude.

IN A QUANDARY OVER MANDATORY PRIMARY

Guthrie, Ok., March 9.—The convention is still in a quandary regarding its power in providing for mandatory primaries in the first state election, and has before three reports made yesterday from its legal advisory committee on the subject. One holds that the enabling act makes the present Oklahoma law applicable throughout the new state as added to the first election. Under this law the method of nominating is optional with the parties.

It also holds that the convention without authority to provide for a mandatory primary election that the convention is without power to create a canvassing board to canvass the votes cast at the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitution for the reason that such a canvassing board is provided for in the enabling act, but that the convention has the power to provide for the election machinery in Indian Territory for the reason that no election machinery exists there, and that such power is granted by the enabling act.

It is further the committee's opinion that on account of the election machinery of Oklahoma not being applicable owing to change in counties, and for the further reason that there is no state canvassing board to canvass the returns of the election for state, district and county officers that the convention has the power to provide for election machinery in the territory of Oklahoma and to provide for a state canvassing board to canvass returns of the election for state district and county officers. The committee believes that the election laws of Oklahoma Territory as to manner and method of holding and conducting the election so far as applicable are in force and should be complied with in the election in Indian Territory and in Oklahoma and owing to the fact that the language of the enabling act is such as renders it possible for differences of opinion as to the power of the convention in these matters, it recommends that the convention in providing for the election on the Oklahoma Territory side, conform as far as applicable to the election machinery now in existence in the territory of Oklahoma.

Mr. Kane and Mr. Leahy also of the committee construe the enabling act to place full authority with the constitutional convention to provide for a full corps of state, county and district officers, and the manner of their nomination and election. Mr. Williams of Durant concurs in this opinion except as applied to congressmen and United States senators which officers are not created by the constitution, but joins them in holding that the convention has authority to order mandatory primaries for all offices created by the constitution also by ordinance to create the entire election machinery, for holding the first election.

The election committee's report, which was being held up until the advisory committee could speak, provides for an entire new machine and a mandatory primary for all parties.

Under the revised insurance report fees for admission of companies to transact business in Oklahoma are considerably reduced. Life companies being $100 and fire companies $75. The tax is 2 per cent on all premiums collected less amount of losses paid.

Through the effort of Ham Bee of Ardmore, prominent in the Indian Territory volunteer firemen organization, a recommendation is made that the legislature may enact laws for pensioning of meritorious and disabled firemen.

The convention spent the day in correcting provisions ready for the constitution.

An amendment to the prohibition provision requiring that the state-wide plan, to become effective, must receive a majority of all votes cast at the election, was rejected. To give prohibition effect only a majority of the votes cast on that subject is necessary.

In regulating private corporations, trade discrimination is prohibited, against persons, firms or corporations, as well as against sections, communities and cities.

The house of representatives shall never consist of more than 123 members. Six more provisions were signed yesterday, among them being that establishing county seats.

If you have a horse, a cow, a wagon, set of harness or household goods, in fact anything you wish to dispose of, advertise it for sale in the Daily News. Costs only 5c a line, and you can find a ready buyer or a chance to exchange your property to advantage for something you want. In Ada everybody reads the Daily News, and it costs you only a few cents to put your ad before them all.

McPherrin to Speak.

Chas. E. McPherrin, of Caddo, candidate for congress in this district, will address the Democratic voters of this community at the U. S. court house in Ada Monday night, March 11. Mr. McPherrin is an orator of reputation, and it is worth everybody's while to hear him. 297-4t

New Aldermanic Candidates.

W. A. Alexander authorizes The News to announce him as a candidate for alderman in the First ward, subject to the action of the democratic primary next Tuesday. Mr. Alexander is an old settler in Ada; is conversant with the municipal affairs, and would be a painstaking and conscientious as a member of the city council. The News commends him to the democrats of Ada.

Democrats of the 2nd ward held a caucus last night whereat several good citizens were nominated to represent the word as aldermen on the ticket Tuesday. The result of the balloting showed T. J. Chambliss and W. H. Markham to be the choice for the honors.

O. E. Davenport, a leading merchant of Tishomingo, and an old friend of the News staff, was here for a few hours enroute home from the Eastern markets.

Among the Democratic committee-men attending the county meeting today were these from Allen: G. L. Parker, editor Allen Hustler; Wm. Ellett, a leading citizen engaged in the gun business and being urged by his friends to run for County Commissioner.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Coggins Seized With Hemorrhages—Hurried to Ardmore.

The examining trial of Sidney Coggins for the killing of Warren at Ahloso a week ago, was continued Friday afternoon until this afternoon. But last night he collapsed physically, being seized with alarming hemorrhages, supposed to be a recurrent effect of the carbolic acid he drank combined with more or less exposure to the recent inclement weather.

So, this morning early the hearing was hastily completed, the defense offering no testimony, the defendant was held without bail, and was taken at once to the U. S. jail at Ardmore where it is thought he can receive better care.

A Great Dinner.

Financially, socially, and from a culinary standpoint—all three—the old soldiers' benefit dinner served today by the Daughters of the Confederacy was a brilliant success.

For two hours the room was crowded with eager, joyous people, glad of an opportunity both to eat something good and to contribute to so noble a cause. A total of $45 was realized. No old soldiers were permitted to pay for their dinner.

There will be no supper served, as was intended, because everything was eaten up. A lot of hams and turkeys exported from the country failed to get in on account of the rain.

J. R. Ingram Announces.

J. R. Ingram, feeling that he is qualified to make the city a good street commissioner, requests The News to announce him for that office, subject to the Democratic primary Tuesday.

Born in Arkansas, at the age 20 Mr. Ingram moved to Dallas, Texas, where he resided till coming to Ada two years ago. While a resident of Dallas he did a great deal of street and bridge work, valuable training for a street commissioner. Here in Ada he has been engaged chiefly in dairy and butcher business.

If chosen for this office he pledges himself faithfully to serve the people.

ABOUT COUNTY OFFICES AND THE SUB-DIVISIONS

Guthrie, Ok., March 1.—President Murray is in receipt of a large number of letters asking about the office of County Assessor. The Oklahoma law now providing for Township Assessors will apply in the new state. County Assessors were provided by the Oklahoma delegates who have tried both county and township plans. The county offices created by the convention are: Judge, Clerk, Attorney, Treasurer, Register of Deeds, Surveyor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, three County Commissioners, Justice of the Peace for each municipal township and Clerk of the District Court.

is that the County Treasurer is tax collector. School district boards will be composed of three members—director, treasurer and clerk. The township board is composed of trustee who is assessor of the township and a treasurer and clerk. The school districts, at the annual meeting of the board, levy all taxes to conduct the school district for one year. County Commissioners levy all taxes for county purposes, hence the township trustee is the assessor of his municipal township. School districts and townships together with the Commissioner districts and Justice of the Peace precincts, will be marked in each county by the election board for each county. The county election board three in number are appointed by the State Supreme Election Board.

PONTOTOC'S DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE NOW ORGANIZED

Saturday afternoon at the City Hall in Ada the various committeemen selected a week before at township meetings assembled to perfect organization of the Democratic Central Committee for Pontotoc.

The following were noted present, others being represented by proxies: W. H. Hammond, Francis, J. W. Bohannon, Midland, W. L. MaHarg, Fitzhugh, G. L. Parker, Allen, M. W. Ligon, Ada, M. F. Dew, Ahlso, Nick Heard, Stonewall, Ed Thompson, Jesse, G. L. Parker of Allen was elected chairman, W. H. Hammond of Francis, vice-president, and S. T. McClure of Roff, secretary.

A message from Delegate Carlton Weaver in the nature of an accounting of his stewardship in the constitutional convention was presented and read. The document is published elsewhere herein.

The committee having been requested by Delegate Weaver to recommend two good Democrats to serve on the county board of election commissioners—such recommendation to be final with the Supreme Election Board which has the power of appointment—T. J. Chabless of Ada was nominated as one and Capt. Vaden of Roff the other. Both were unanimously chosen. On motion of J. W. Bolen W. H. L. Campbell who was the state committeeman from the 11th Recording District was retained in a like capacity for Pontotoc county.

There was a goodly number of the laity attending the meeting and enthusiasm and utmost harmony prevailed throughout the proceedings.

The meeting adjourned to meet again here March 10th.

Introduced by Dr. M. W. Ligon the following endorsement of Delegate Carlton Weaver was unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved by the Democratic Central County Committee of Pontotoc County of Oklahoma that we hereby endorse the course and splendid services of our delegate in the Constitutional Convention Hon. Carlton Weaver, and that in all his actions as such delegate he has shown capacity, judgment, honesty, a high regard for his platform pledges, and an appreciation for the opinion of the people of his County on all public questions and that in all his actions he has tried to be the servant of the people, reflecting as far as possible the general desires and judgment of all.

Second, resolved further that we highly appreciate with a fitting pride the fact of his having made his strong personality so obviously felt in said convention.

Third, resolved further that we greatly appreciate and commend as highly democratic and fair his request for an expression of this committee on the selection of the election commissioners of this county and its organization.

WEAVER'S MESSAGE

To the organized Democracy of Pontotoc County

Gentlemen of the Committee: Being informed that the democracy of Pontotoc county would be organized in Ada, March 9th, through the meeting of a representative democratic from each township within the county, I take the opportunity afforded of communicating with you relative to the business of the constitutional convention.

The convention has consumed more time than was at first anticipated but the delegates have not contented themselves with the business of copying provisions of other constitutions and adjourning, but have striven to the end of framing a constitution for Oklahoma and one adapted to the intricate and complicated conditions that exist in the two territories. Despite some newspaper reports to the contrary the convention has worked hard and has wasted no time. Perhaps a few mistakes have been made, but the people will be given a constitution that will bring the state government close to the people and one that will restrain predatory wealth and corporate greed.

Perhaps the action of the convention in not placing the separate coach provision in the constitution will be the cause of some dissatisfaction but in my judgment when the people learn the real cause for same, the action of the convention will be approved by all friends of statehood. The best legal talent of the convention holds that the terms of the Enabling Act would warrant Mr. Roosevelt refusing to issue the statehood proclamation should the constitution contain the separate coach provisions. Friends of statehood and of the democratic party in Washington, men who fought for the passage of the statehood bill, including every congressman consulted, every Southern senator but one, and Mr. Bryan, have urged us to leave the matter to the first legislature, saying that statehood would be seriously endangered and perhaps defeated were this not done. Besides this evidence to justify the action, Mr. Roosevelt said in a private conversation at the White House in the presence of Mr. Watson and ex-Senator Jones of Arkansas, that he could not approve the constitution should it contain the separate coach and waiting room provision. The majority of the delegates considered their paramount duty the business of getting statehood, and believed that the people would endorse this spirit, especially those of Indian Territory, whose prosperity and progress depend on self-government. In behalf of our necessities and those who so hardly fought the battle for statehood and in view of the fact that national consequences which could not be foreseen I felt compelled notwithstanding the party obligation to vote against the adoption of the Jim Crow provision in our constitution. The legislature will convene within twenty days after the statehood proclamation is issued and this very much desired provision will certainly be enacted.

The Supreme Election Board has been named who will at an early date appoint the county committeemen who will apportion each county into commissioners and election precincts, superintend county elections and perform other duties.

Recognizing the great responsibility of those county committeemen and how considerable their prerogatives and feeling that a proposition of such great importance to the people of Pontotoc county should as nearly as possible be controlled by the popular will of the people affected, I hereby request the organized democracy of Pontotoc county to recommend for such appointments two citizens of our party from Pontotoc county. Those recommended will be appointed.

The date named by the committee for the primary election is June 1st, and for the general election August 6th. According to my best judgment the convention will have concluded its labors by March 20th.

Cordially inviting you to command me and trusting that Pontotoc shall be the banner democratic county of the state, with sincerest best wishes,

Yours truly,

CARLTON WEAVER,
Delegate to Convention.

Railroad Officials Inspect Cement Plant—Delighted.

The Frisco General Manager's special train paused in Ada Friday for an hour or so to inspect the Oklahoma Portland Cement Co.'s plant now in course of construction.

There were 8 or 10 officials in the party, including General Manager Nixon, General Superintendent O'Hara and Division Supt. Walton. These big officials though used to big things were astonished at the magnitude of the enterprise. A thorough inspection of the plant was made amid continued exclamations of surprise and delight as the immensity of the plant was unfolded to the visitors.

All expressed themselves as highly gratified to have on their line a manufacturing plant of such magnitude.

IN A QUANDARY OVER MANDATORY PRIMARY

Guthrie, Ok., March 9.—The convention is still in a quandary regarding its power in providing for mandatory primaries in the first state election, and has before it three reports made yesterday from its legal advisory committee on the subject. One holds that the enabling act makes the present Oklahoma law applicable throughout the new state as added to the first election. Under this law the method of nominating is optional with the parties.

It also holds that the convention without authority to provide for a mandatory primary election that the convention is without power to create a canvassing board to canvass the votes cast at the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitution for the reason that such a canvassing board is provided for in the enabling act, but that the convention has the power to provide for the election machinery in Indian Territory for the reason that no election machinery exists there, and that such power is granted by the enabling act.

It is further the committee's opinion that on account of the election machinery of Oklahoma not being applicable owing to change in counties, and for the further reason that there is no state canvassing board to canvass the returns of the election for state, district and county officers that the convention has the power to provide for election machinery in the territory of Oklahoma and to provide for a state canvassing board to canvass returns of the election for state district and county officers. The committee believes that the election laws of Oklahoma Territory as to manner and method of holding and conducting the election so far as applicable are in force and should be complied with in the election in Indian Territory and in Oklahoma and owing to the fact that the language of the enabling act is such as renders it possible for differences of opinion as to the power of the convention in these matters, it recommends that the convention in providing for the election on the Oklahoma Territory side, conform as far as applicable to the election machinery now in existence in the territory of Oklahoma.

Mr. Kane and Mr. Leahy also of the committee construe the enabling act to place full authority with the constitutional convention to provide for a full corps of state, county and district officers, and the manner of their nomination and election. Mr. Williams of Durant concurs in this opinion except as applied to congressmen and United States senators which officers are not created by the constitution, but joins them in holding that the convention has authority to order mandatory primaries for all offices created by the constitution also by ordinance to create the entire election machinery, for holding the first election.

The election committee's report, which was being held up until the advisory committee could speak, provides for an entire new machine and a mandatory primary for all parties.

Under the revised insurance report fees for admission of companies to transact business in Oklahoma are considerably reduced. Life companies being $100 and fire companies $75. The tax is 2 per cent on all premiums collected less amount of losses paid.

Through the effort of Ham Bee of Ardmore, prominent in the Indian Territory volunteer firemen organization, a recommendation is made that the legislature may enact laws for pensioning of meritorious and disabled firemen.

The convention spent the day in correcting provisions ready for the constitution.

An amendment to the prohibition provision requiring that the state-wide plan, to become effective, must receive a majority of all votes cast at the election, was rejected. To give prohibition effect only a majority of the votes cast on that subject is necessary.

In regulating private corporations, trade discrimination is prohibited, against persons, firms or corporations, as well as against sections, communities and cities.

The house of representatives shall never consist of more than 123 members. Six more provisions were signed yesterday, among them being that establishing county seats.

Simple Prescription Prevents Serious Kidney Disease.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney disarrangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, (especially at night) painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These vegetable ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and any one can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism either, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

and remember the next time you suffer pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment."—Sold by G. M. Ramsey.

Alice Roosevelt's Wedding was something to be recorded in the annals of history. Herbine has been acknowledged the greatest of liver regulators. A positive cure for bilious headaches, constipation, chills and fever, and all liver complaints. J. C. Smith, Little Rock, Ark., writes: "Herbine is the greatest liver medicine known. Have used it for years. It does the work."—Sold by G. M. Ramsey.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by G. M. Ramsey. Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Do Not Crowd the Season

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by G. M. Ramsey.

A Baby

should be sunshine in the home, and will be if you give it White's Cream Vermifuge, the greatest worm medicine ever offered to suffering humanity. This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of well regulated households—A mother, with children, can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. It is the purest and best medicine money can buy.—Sold by G. M. Ramsey.

Found at Last

J. A. Harmon, of Lizenmore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say, take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at G. M. Ramsey's, Druggist.

Don't Complain.

If your chest pains and you are unable to sleep because of a cough. Buy a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and you won't have any cough. Get a bottle now and that cough will not last long. A cure for all pulmonary diseases. Mrs. J., Galveston, Texas, writes: "I can't say enough for Ballard's Horehound Syrup. The relief it has given me is all that is necessary for me to say."—Sold by G. M. Ramsey.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga. did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at G. M. Ramsey, Druggist. Price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by G. M. Ramsey.

ADA, CHICKASAW NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY.

The biggest little city in the new commonwealth. The city that has never experienced either a boom or a blow. During its six years' life it has gradually grown into a commercial and railroad center of 4,600 population. The growth has been natural, solid, and enduring.

A big Portland cement plant with a pay roll of $8,500 per week, in process of construction; $40,000 worth of waterworks improvement, including a mammoth reservoir to furnish abundant water for factories.

Veritably Ada

is a city built upon a rock, and it will stand. It is in the logical belt of various mineral resources. Court town for 16th Recording District and unquestionably a county seat under statehood.

Not a rival town within a radius of 40 miles. In a cotton country, but not DEPENDANT UPON cotton. Healthful climate; good water. Low taxes; real estate values reasonable, but rising. Ada is the place pre-eminent to live or invest in. Better get in on the ground floor before the skyscrapers come.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the controller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock of the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man who accounts is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have to bank again.
